AWARD.

This is an application under Section 33 (A) of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by the President of the Tannery Workers' Union, Bangalore, complaining that subsequent to the reference of the dispute between the parties to this Tribunal for adjudication, the owners of 16 Tanneries closed their tannery shops and have in consequence thrown out of employment a large number of workers. The list of the Tanneries which have so closed their tannery shops, as also the names of the workmen thrown out of employment, as alleged, was appended to the petition. They prayed " that an award may be passed declaring the closure of the tanneries as being illegal and ordering the reinstatement of the employees so discharged with back pay and other allowances from the date of dismissal up to the date of reinstatement."

Objections were filed by the employers denying the allegations made in the complaint.

In view of the settlement of their disputes in the main case, Sri A. Nagesha Rao, Advocate for the workers, represented that he was not pressing the petition and he would withdraw the same. The petition is consequently dismissed. No order as to costs.
